

Very
The Fairy Princess

by Julie Andrews & Emma Walton Hamilton

Illustrated by Christine Davenier

Hi! I'm Geraldine.
I'm a fairy princess.
You may not believe me, but I can tell you that I AM.

I know that I'm a fairy princess because I FEEL it inside—a sparkly feeling of just KNOWING in my heart.
Also, I do EVERYTHING that fairy princesses do.

The first thing I do when I wake up in the morning is put on my crown.

(Fairy princesses are ALWAYS presentable.

You never know who you might bump into...even on the stairs.)

For breakfast I have Fairy Pancakes, with extra fairy dust on top.
YUM!

(Fairy princesses have very refined taste.)

Then it's time to choose my royal attire for the day.
The BIG decision is which dress to wear: pink and white,
pink and purple, pink and red...or just pink?

My brother, Stewart, says fairy princesses
don't wear sneakers and don't have scabby knees.
I say sneakers help me practice my flying skills, ESPECIALLY when we're late for the school bus, and scabs are the price you pay.
(Fairy princesses are very practical.)

My best friend, Delilah, doesn't believe that I'm a fairy princess. I say you can be whatever you want to be. You just have to let your SPARKLE out!